11. Review of Accounts. If applicant provides investment supervisory services, manages investment advisory accounts, or holds itself out as providing financial planning or some similarly termed services:

- A. Describe below the reviews and reviewers of the accounts. For reviews, include their frequency, different levels, and triggering factors. For reviewers, include the number of reviewers, their titles and functions, instructions they receive from applicant on performing reviews, and number of accounts assigned each.

Reviews: Frequency, different levels, triggering factors

Financial Planning Reviews: Each plan is done and once accepted by the client, it is only updated by a request of the client.

Investments Portfolio Reviews: For the Wealth Portfolio Program where we provide investment management services, we review the portfolio quarterly and send the client quarterly reports. If we recommend a change, we tell them when we send the quarterly report and follow up to get their approval for implementation. We encourage, at minimum, a yearly in-person review.

Reviewers: Each financial plan is produced by a staff financial planner and a partner with a final review by a partner. All reviewers are listed in #6. For financial plans, there is no regular review schedule as all plans are updated upon request from the client.

- B. Describe below the nature and frequency of regular reports to clients on their accounts.

Communications and reports to clients are done as agreed upon by the client and the representative. No ongoing monitoring of assets is offered, unless a manager is hired or client uses our Wealth Portfolio Program. Clients will receive copies of confirmation statements as well as account statements as issued by account custodians or the mutual fund companies which summarize all account activity for the previous month or quarter.

For investment portfolio reviews on the Wealth Portfolio Program, they are first reviewed by Ms. Nelson quarterly and then a final review is done by Ms. Foord. There are currently 15 of these accounts and it is expected that there will ultimately be 60 accounts in this program.
